

If you are looking for the best software to cover completely your planning needs, here are some features you should searching for.

Scheduling

You know that scheduling is an absolutely critical component when it comes to planning.

Gantt Charts

A must component of planning and scheduling. Gantt chart provides you with an overview of the project progress through a visual timeline.

Automation Project Planning

Automation can save hours of your time by dramatically simplifying project planning.

Milestone Charts

Milestones are tools to mark specific points along a project. This will help for sharing high-level project information.

Predictive Features

Predictive features in a PM software can give you reliability for a successful project ending. Make sure the software provide advanced statistical calculations to measure the impact of project changes.

Integration

Check if the system provides an integration with other software you use. It is an important time-saver for you.

Resource Planning

This option allows you to manage your resources accurately.

Task Deadline Alerts

Check carefully if the system is able to instantly notified you when your tasks are behind the schedule.

How to choose the best planning project software? Quick Tips.

